

नेपाली राजदूतावास, मस्को
EMBASSY OF NEPAL, Moscow

Press Release

Ambassador of Nepal to the Russian Federation, His Excellency Mr. Rishi Ram Ghimire presented his Letters of Credence to the President of the Russian Federation, His Excellency Mr. Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, amid a special official ceremony organized at the Grand Kremlin Palace in Moscow today. He also presented the Letter of Recall of his predecessor.

The President received in audience Ambassador Ghimire following the presentation of credentials. During the audience, Ambassador Ghimire conveyed warm greetings and best wishes from the Right Honourable President Mrs. Bidhya Devi Bhandari and the Right Honourable Prime Minister Mr. Puspa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda' as well as the people of Nepal for the personal health and happiness of the President as well as for the continued progress and prosperity of the friendly people and the government of the Russian Federation.

The President of Russia welcomed Mr. Ghimire as an Ambassador of Nepal to the Russian Federation. Expressing his happiness over extant ties between Nepal and Russia, the President wished him a successful tenure and assured him of full cooperation of the Russian government in discharge of his duties.

Earlier in the Ceremony, in an official speech, the President welcomed the Ambassadors of Eighteen countries who presented their Letters of Credence and expressed views about the global politics and Russian foreign policy perspectives. Also making special remarks about each country, the president stated about Nepal as; "Mutual understanding, goodwill and a similarity in approaches to current international issues characterise Russia's relations with Nepal. It is good to see that the constructive nature of our ties does not depend on global political considerations of the moment. This enables us to work together with success on our bilateral agenda and pursue fruitful cooperation within the UN and other organisations."

The Embassy of Nepal
Moscow
March 16, 2017

