

नेपाली राजदूतावास, मस्को
EMBASSY OF NEPAL, Moscow

Press Release

The Embassy of Nepal in Moscow, Russia hosted a reception/dinner at its premises in honour of the visiting business delegation of 38 businessmen this evening who came to Moscow to participate in an event called 'Nepal Festival' which is scheduled to take place from 5-7 October 2018 at the Exhibition Centre, Arbat Street 24, 2nd floor, Moscow. This festival is organized by the Embassy of Nepal in cooperation with the Non-Resident Nepalese Association, Russia. On the occasion two papers were presented by Dr. Eka Naryayan Chapagain, Moscow based businessman and NCC Russia Representative for ICC, NRNA, on Nepal-Russia trade/business and Mr. Kiran Ranabhat, Youth Representative, NRNA NCC Russia, on tourism. Russian businessmen, journalists, Moscow based Nepali businessmen, NRNA, Russia executive officials, officials of the Russia-Nepal Friendship Society and other Nepali diasporas attended the program.

His Excellency Mr. Rishi Ram Ghimire, Ambassador of Nepal to the Russian Federation welcomed the visiting guests and participants in the premises of Nepal Embassy and highlighted the importance of this first 'Nepal Festival' and the policies of Nepal government on economic diplomacy. In the program President of Non-Resident of Nepalese Association of Russia Mr. Rameshor Gautam delivered a speech and shed light on the importance of Nepal Festival for both countries; Russia and Nepal respectively.

Dr. Badri K.C., General Secretary of the Non-Resident Association, ICC, conducted the program.

Embassy of Nepal
Moscow
4th October, 2018

