

नेपाली राजदूतावास, मस्को
Embassy of Nepal
Moscow

Press Release

His Excellency, Mr. Milan Raj Tuladhar, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Nepal to the Republic of Belarus, with residence in Moscow, presented his letters of credence to his Excellency, Mr. Aleksandr Lukashenko, President of the Republic of Belarus, amid a special ceremony organised in the Presidential Palace in Minsk on 15 February 2024.

Ambassador Mr. Tuladhar, while presenting his Letters of Credence, extended warm regards and best wishes from the president and people of Nepal to the president of the Republic of Belarus H.E. Mr. Lukashenko.

During his three days visit to Minsk, H.E. Ambassador called on the Ministers and various high officials of the Republic of Belarus.

On February 14, H. E. Ambassador called on the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Belarus H.E. Mr. Ambrazhevich Yury Georgievich, and presented the copy of the letters of credence. During the meeting, both sides felt the need of bilateral cooperation mechanism between two countries. Both sides felt the high potential of cooperation in the fields of tourism, trade and education.

Earlier, on the same day, H.E. Ambassador had a meeting with H.E. Mr. Nikolay Nikolaevich Borisevich, Director of the National Centre for Marketing of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Belarus.

H.E. Ambassador called on, Minister of Sports and Tourism H.E. Mr. Kovalchuk Sergey Mikhailovich on 15th February 2024. Both sides felt the need for further cooperation in the sports field which will help mutual development of sports. Similarly, the Belarussian expeditions would like to make mountain climbing in Nepal and conduct other trekking activities. There is high potential of Belarussian visitors to Nepal.

On the same day, H. E. Ambassador called on the First Deputy Minister of Transport and Communications H.E. Mr. Valery Verenich to discuss the prospects of cooperation in the field of infrastructure development.

Embassy of Nepal,
Moscow
16 February 2024